What Wolf did for philology, Leopold von Ranke did for historiography generally.

Ars Goetia: The Devils Advocate

Quotes by David Anthony. That the highest honours and dignities are opened to a foreign refugee in France, and that it is possible for him so thoroughly to identify himself with his adopted country, as to be amply indemnified for the loss of his own, is nevertheless a glaring fact; and it rather strangely contrasts with the narrow-minded jealousy of a nation, otherwise just and generous, which not only excludes foreigners from public life, but is still murmuring against the preferment of an Italian to an honourable employment, one of great trust, undoubtedly, but purely of a literary character; notwithstanding his well-acknowledged abilities, notwithstanding his signal services, and unwearied zeal and devotion.
