The caller keeps dialing, and the impulse to make the bell ring keeps bleeding from the end of the broken wire into the snow. Likewise, the spirited accounts of inventive instrument music by Mozart-the Adagio and Fugue in C minor KVSechs Landlerische for two violins and bass KVthe Overture from La clemenza di Tito KV, and the ballet music from Act Three of Idomeneo, re di Creta KV-are marked by stylistic unity that does not interfere with pronounced but unexaggerated differentiation among the varied forms employed by the celebrated Salzburger. They sound fantastic.
